

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate, Internal Relations and Communications Department

Wednesday, Aug. 7

2002

'Freedom to Manage' in place for employee suggestions

As outlined by Administrator Sean O'Keefe, NASA has begun the "Freedom to Manage" program to remove barriers to effectiveness and efficiency present in the Agency. Impediments of any kind are open to examination, analysis and possible elimination in this program. A Web site where employees may suggest ideas to eliminate barriers is at <http://f2m.nasa.gov/>

For Marshall Safety Action
Team meeting
information, visit http:// msat.msfc.nasa.gov

'Family Fun Day'
10 a.m.-2 p.m.
Aug. 17 at Marshall picnic grounds. Friday is the last day to purchase meal tickets

E-learning library offers training opportunities

The new Marshall Center e-learning library features online courseware with more than 2,000 interactive training programs available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Among courses offered are Excel, PowerPoint, Access, Microsoft Word, Project and Outlook. Business topics include budgeting, finance, human resources, leadership, marketing and project management. There are general programs such as "Using the Internet," "Diversity," "Managing Money," "Stress Management" and "Time Management." For more information, go to <http://mi.msfc.nasa.gov/elearning> or call 544-8291.

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>